

KERN COUNTY AIR POLLUTION CONTROL DISTRICT

RULE 404.1 - PARTICULATE MATTER CONCENTRATION

(Adopted 4/18/72, Amended 01/24/2007)

I. Applicability

Rule 404.1 applies to any person who discharges particulate matter emissions into the atmosphere from any single source operation.

II. Exemptions

1. The requirement of this rule shall not apply to the following equipment provided it combusts only liquid fuels, gaseous fuels, or waste gases, and only emits combustion contaminants:
  - a. Boilers,
  - b. Steam generators,
  - c. Water heaters,
  - d. Process heaters, and
2. This rule shall not apply to rocket testing operations meeting the requirements or exemptions of Rule 431.
3. The rule shall not apply to fires set in accordance with requirements of Rules 416.

III. Requirements

Particulate matter emissions shall not exceed 0.1-grains per standard cubic foot of gas at standard conditions (gr/scf).

IV. Test Methods

Requirements of Section 3 shall be determined by in accordance with the following test procedures:

Particulate Matter: EPA Test Method 5, 5A, 5B, 5D, 5E, 5F, 5G, 5H, or 5i
California Air Resources Board (CARB) Method 5, 5A or 5E.